JOIN TODAY!

Since 1993, the Adams County Arts Council has evolved from a small grassroots group into a nonprofit arts organization with a growing membership. Dedicated to the mission of cultivating an arts-rich community, ACAC's primary goals are to provide high quality arts experiences to students of all ages and to support county arts organizations and artists. Each year, ACAC serves about 20,000 residents and visitors with arts programs that enrich our lives and lift our spirits. As a member, you support our mission and receive benefits such as discounts on arts classes at our Arts Education Center.

Memberships renew May 1 of each year.

Agreement: Submission of work to the exhibition will constitute an agreement to comply with rules, conditions and requirements listed on this form.

- Entries must be the original work of the submitting artist and completed within the past three years. (2016 through the entry deadline).
- Works should be no larger than 60 inches, framed/hang-ready or display dimensions, in any direction.
- Entries may NOT have been accepted for exhibition in prior ACAC juried art exhibitions.
- ACAC and Schmucker Art Gallery reserve the right to reject any work.
- All work must be free standing or hang-ready.
- Labeled work must include title, date, price or insurance value if not for sale, and artist's name.
- No prints or copies of original works will be accepted. Digital prints will be considered original art only if accompanied by the artist's statement confirming same.
- Once an item has been accepted it may not be withdrawn or the conditions of sale changed without the consent of the Art Exhibition Committee.
- Art sales do not include reproduction rights. The artist and buyer must negotiate separately.
- Artwork receiving request of purchase will be sold on a "first-come/first-served" basis.
- Artwork purchased but not collected will be retained by ACAC. Every effort will be made to contact the buyer. If the sale remains incomplete after 3 months, the artist can reclaim the work.
- ACAC & Schmucker Gallery reserve the right to photograph work for publicity and education purposes. Please indicate any objections in writing and attach to entry form.
- ACAC & Schmucker Gallery are not responsible for storage of artwork after June 20, 2020.
