

A legacy for our community

The Adams County Arts Education Center will provide:

Quality arts instruction for all ages

After-school programs for at-risk youth

Pre-K instruction to introduce learning and motor skills through the arts

Performance space for recitals, poetry slams, concerts, and more

Art gallery where local artists can show and sell their work

Reception hall for large community and private events

Full kitchen for culinary instruction and event service

A sustainable future for the arts in Adams County

Studio rentals where artists can work and teach in residency

Please play your part! When you help the arts, you help your community, your neighbors, and your children. Your contribution to the Arts Education Center will help to create a legacy for coming generations in Adams County. Give a donation today.

Thank you for supporting the arts.
